PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Dallas Ski Club is off to a great start having grown this just-ended fiscal year to just below 500 members. President Ed Cox and members of his Board gave us a great year which, I hope, the new board can make happen again.

There are several new faces that have volunteered for the first time to serve on the DSC board. Irving Reed is the Secretary, Catherine DuBord is the VP Happy Hours, Cinde Cotton is the VP Activities, and, although technically not a "new face" since he served on the board 32 years ago, Jim Piot, VP Marketing. We also have Tom Kever, who served as DSC President 2010-11, coming on as Treasurer, and Marlene Heineman, who served as DSC President 2006-07, as President Elect.

Staying on from the previous board is Ed Cox as Past President to ensure this board obeys all the rules. Also returning is Dan Eckelkamp, VP Publications; Marty Baker, VP Membership; and Betty Graham, VP Trips. I am extremely glad these members again volunteered their time to serve one more year. Returning not just from the last Board is the person that has kept this club running smoothly for 19 years - the DSC's club administrator, Anita Landenberger. There is an old saying that "Behind every great man, there is a greater woman!" Well, I have been in this club a long, long time and I can say that 'Behind every great DSC board, there was ANITA."

Speaking of V-O-L-U-N-T-E-E-R-S, this is where you, our members, are needed to make this coming year another great success. For instance, we have a Happy Hour each month, and Catherine DuBord needs about 10 volunteers to sit at the table for 30 minute sessions to check in members and guests. And we have 5 or 6 activities a year where Cinde Cotton needs volunteers to set up tables and chairs for a fantastic evening activity and to also take them down. Betty Graham plans five ski trips and two or three non-ski events, and she needs volunteers to become the trip leaders and help sell the trips to our members. Marty Baker needs volunteers to help in setting up at least a couple of events to honor our new members during the year.

YOU ARE NEEDED. I hope that when you are made aware of the upcoming happy hours, trips, activities etc. that you will let them know you will VOLUNTEER and lend a hand. I also hope club members will support every happy hour, every activity, and fill every trip offered for this next year – this is the way to get to know others in the Dallas Ski Club!

Thanks for reading.....

George Kelly

Beaver Creek, CO Trip March 2018

It was another fantastic trip to Beaver Creek for the Dallas Ski Club. A fun group of 37 of our members joined us including 6 new members. We welcomed Om Singla (the only new male), Janice Cooper, Karen Koval, Dorian Arledge, Suzanne McGrath and Ruth Callahan to the bunch.

The trip began with a huge surprise at our Welcome party at The Charter. Jerry Aris proposed to Carol Brown and she said "Yes"! There was a brilliant diamond ring and lots of Champagne to toast the blushing, happy couple. You never know what is going to happen on one of our ski trips!!

Many congratulations to Jerry and Carol!

Monday we were all out for a fantastic day of skiing. Many of our group met daily at the Chop House for lunch and apres-ski drinks - it was a great place to gather. Tuesday night we had a group Happy Hour in the bar at The Charter. Drinks on the Club and $10 pizzas that were delicious! We needed some new snow so Debbie Schirico, Janet Stone, Erin Botsford plus several others did a Snow Dance at Splendido's that night!. It worked, we had 7 inches of new powder that made our skiing even better.

Wednesday night I arranged a group dinner in The Black Diamond Bistro, the main restaurant in The Charter. We had 35 of our 37 members in attendance, the food was amazing and the service spectacular! All seemed to be very pleased and tummies were full! Our tour group operator Sports America had delivered a case of wine on Tuesday to our surprise. Debbie, Sheryl, Mary Lee and I had the group to our condo for a pre-dinner wine tasting! Thursday was a magnificent day of skiing with that wonderful snow, but high temperatures cut the day short. They must have performed a snow and rain dance because Thursday night it rained but then turned into a beautiful snowfall. 9 (including all the new ladies) of us ladies had a fabulous evening on the sleigh ride up the mountain to Beanos Cabin. We had to cover up a little as it rained going up and returning but it was a great evening!

A few of the group skied Friday and said it was amazing. Many of us gathered in our condo for a movie day while others shopped the 50% off sale at Gorsuch. The Love Shack had us all for a Left-Over Happy hour on Friday evening. We had plenty of food, pizza and just enough wine to share to make a nice ending to a wonderful trip.

It was sad to leave BC on Saturday morning especially since it snowed 12" Friday night! Wished we had another day! Bus, flight, luggage all went well on the trip with only a few bruises to bring home. I received raving comments on how much everyone loved Beaver Creek. They definitely want to go again!

Condolences

The Board and Members of the Dallas Ski Club send their condolences to the families and friends of long time member:

Bruce Barton, 1930-2018

Stanley Bruce Barton was born September 4, 1930 in Valentine, Nebraska and was the second child to his Presbyterian preacher father Thomas Andrew Barton and his wife Harriett (Erickson) Barton. It was a special day because he shared his birthday with his father Thomas. A preacher's family may have had it as bad as anyone in the depression because preachers were not paid very well. Bruce didn't remember hardship.

Before the Korean War started, Bruce joined the Naval Reserve for one summer tour and served on a destroyer to Hawaii. He then joined the Army on Oct. 5, 1950. He married his college sweetheart, Lori, about a year later. He was in the 11th Airborne Division and a Unit Supplies Specialist until he left the army Oct 6, 1953.

After this Army duty, Bruce attended Law School at University of Nebraska-Lincoln. After graduation, Bruce and Lori moved to Kearney where he became a trial lawyer and a Justice of the Peace and the couple started their family. Eventually, Bruce and Lori had three children: Sonja, Sheri and Eric.

In January 1990, Bruce moved to Brooklyn, NY, to become the District Executive for the Federal Court system. He loved his six years of this very fulfilling job. He was most proud of the famous Mafia trial of John Gotti, which was held in his court. Gotti was sentenced to life in prison without parole after three previous acquittals in other courts!

Bruce retired to Dallas, Texas in 1996 to be with his older brother Wes and his wife Barbara, two nephews as well as his middle daughter, Sheri. He joined the DSC and enjoyed golfing and playing tennis - He played tennis until he was 85.

Changing of the Guard

On Saturday April 26, 2018, the DSC held our Changing of the Guard party at Canyon Creek Country Club. The singles were invited to come early and mingle as the party revved up. We received many great comments about the location as the view of the golf course was fantastic, especially with the setting sun.

In keeping with the Changing of the Guard theme, we dressed up the room with red and black feathers as part of the center pieces to the festivities. We had a great turn out with about 80 members and their friends in attendance. Annagrey Band played for us and the dance floor was packed the entire night!

We were thrilled to see many past presidents in attendance and members were able to catch up with so many.

As dinner wrapped up Ed Cox brought up the former Board of Directors for a round of thank-yous, awarded the President's Award to Dick Gromel for all the many efforts he's put in on behalf of the DSC. Ed turned the microphone over to incoming president George Kelly to introduce the 2018-2019 Board. Following the Board introduction, Marlene Heineman awarded trophies to a few of our skiers in attendance. Many, many congratulations to Skier of the Year Mary Lee Sefried! Dyann Skelton and Dave Pennington received the Ernie Blake trophies, and Dave Tanner was a repeat as the DSC Ski Champion!
